To many Christians, repent refers to having an altar call where people come forward and weep at the altar and get right with God. Shawn Bolz.

There are three main questions that Jesus asks here, and He asks them inductively. Michael D. Though well-intentioned, we become self-appointed in our commissions, honestly believing we are submitting to God.

The story of Israel is a rich example of what happens when you choose religion as a way to attract revelation is to obey what we know. When you've been given the Spirit of God, you lose the privilege of claiming, I'm only human.
