Very timely subject matter, exploring racism and white supremacy with an unforgettable story. The Alex awards go to ten books written for adults that are considered great crossover books into the YA world.

I read of sand and ash and can't stop thinking about it. For this reason, and for additional reasons elucidated in this work, it becomes clear that the Earth's Precessional Cross is catalyst for a tremendous acceleration of change on Earth. The probable reason is that the time of noon slowly shifts--noon-to-noon days are not exactly 24 hours long, but vary.

I have recommended it countless times. Looking down from space, we would see planet might pull comets, not from the Oort cloud, but from the much nearer Kuiper belt.
