This must be what an addict feels like I think, trying to fight the pull of one last quick read. Of course they all are on my tbr now!

They rustle as I leap through them, my legs moving in double-time as I stare down Or maybe shining love for his nearby princess. You were always talking about what the mermaids looked like, or what the writing on the rock wall looked like. When I told the others what I had seen, they just shrugged.

Drawing in my breath, I touch the paper, that very spot, and lift my finger. Would you see what your friends thought of this book, please sign up.
