So there can be no doubt there must be men here of extraordinary stature. The wind kept blowing very strong from the north-east and north-north-east with a great deal of rain. Wekeptquietuntilsomeofthefirstwerewithinshot,whenwithourpieceswef There are many islands and cliffs all round. Towards evening we saw a low-lying point north-east by north of us, at about 3 miles distance; the greater part of the time we were drifting in a calm towards the said point; in the middle of the afternoon we took soundings in 45 fathom, a sticky sandy. We made a signal for them to return, upon which they came back at
