Heidegger, then, sees the origin in a movement that brings truth to light in the form of works of art. The author credibly relates the inner strife of a year-old girl: a childhood filled with the desire for comfort and supposed responsibility for a mother who refuses to grow up. Should we not have the right to breathe our own soul into this dead body?

The author hopes to encourage, even request, their readers not to let themselves share Give access Share full text access. Aber die Sprache ist nicht nur und nicht erstlich ein lautlicher und schriftlicher Ausdruck dessen, was mitgeteilt werden soll.
