As I said, product specifics are crucial to the discoverability of an item in search results but not all of these identifiers need to be added manually all the time. On eBay this is very true from the time of the year until the day and hour. Another huge fault of this listing is an unpresentable photo.

Once in awhile you can offer an item for sale where all the proceeds go to charity and simultaneously offer free combined shipping meaning that once someone buys an item for charity they may want to take advantage of your free combined shipping offer by perusing your items. And little was going to change. Thanks Phil.
