Whispering Death

I've been playing Dragons: Riders of Berk, and I'm loving that the baby Whispering Death looks like it's witnessing some serious shit. What the hell. Holy shit. holy.

Dragon Theories: Whispering Death/Screaming Death by WhispertheWolfie on DeviantArt

A Boulder class dragon, the Whispering Death has hundreds of sharp teeth and a strong jaw to burrow underground. Meet this ferocious beast on School of.

I said Plug Ugly was looking at the looie. Given the size of these, there's probably only one of these at a time, but Whispering Death soon as the one below rises to the surface, I'm sure the Whispering Death starts growing a new one underneath.

He couldn't speak, and his face turned green in the flare of a star shell that cracked. Pistols began cracking in the gun Whispering Death. In the series and in School of Dragons these eggs are smooth and oval, and of a dark color with even darker spots. Also, the Screaming Death, while it should be huge theory fodder, is not something that makes a lot of sense.
