He takes out the letter and writes a poem on its back recalling the last words winds whispered through the stars that still shine in the sky Rises with the lingering shadow of the dream: the serpent of love tickles between the thighs This poem is about a woman who wants to find a man who would make her feel anonymous, outside of her personal history, outside of her education, outside of her marriage and profession. Hewasthinking, letmemakemoreseedsforspring. Joe: I agree. I can write in the morning, afternoon, or night. He sent me photos of ten paintings via email and I was blown away by his work, so I took his titles and wrote ten corresponding poems.
