Thanks Geevetha. I declare, that with my enthusiasm and passion for You, I will operate in faith and not by sight! The trial I face today, will bring me close to You dear Father God. I like that you point out that acknowledging blessing is not. Research suggests our perspective is biased toward the negative and that, for our minds, bad is stronger than good. Try journaling or using an app to track your mood. For a discussion of how to do that. But he gives more grace. It might mean being thankful for the good fortune you were born into, such as a loving family or some amount of financial prosperity; or at least not having suffered with poverty or childhood abuse.
