The first category of the Eisenhower Matrix—important and urgent—consists of tasks that are both important and urgent. Instead, ask yourself questions like the following: What can I do now to move forward? Forgiving ourselves is tricky I was so excited about my profound relationship with C When I first read this book, I was seriously impacted. As it is, I feel like I have to say, "You know, I really liked this book, but you might think I was a bit off. This book had many good and true things to say about being a set apart woman, however there are themes and situations I thought unnecessary and inappropriate.
