Trade Paperback. In Felix Holt, I think I THE RADICAL found an Eliot that recapture some of that beauty and aesthetic that I so loved in Silas; indeed, Felix Holt is the first George Eliot book I have read that I thought bore a strong kinship with the other works of the Eliot FELIX HOLT, being somewhat of a cross between Silas and Middlemarch. Esther falls in love with Felix but must choose between him and Transome after Felix is imprisoned for killing a man albeit accidentally while trying to pacify a riot.
