Although they were not governing such a vast territory as Charles V this practice of using red tape to separate the important dossiers that had to be discussed was quickly copied by the other modern European monarchs to speed up their administrative machines. It is noteworthy that the current, very popular term-limitation movement for legislators has been denounced for placing fetters on the scope of democratic choice. Sellnow-Haveonetosell? A compendium of insane British Bureaucracy Everyone has a call-centre story or some nightmare encounter at the hands of 'customer services' to relate. Oddly enough, liberals never level their critiques on the one area where they do strongly apply: the propaganda, the public relations, the hokum, put out by government. Shippingcostcannotbecalculated. India tops it ensuring the least bureaucratic business environment in the region. The civil service Reformers were a remarkably homogeneous group.
